

Faith Promise

Phil Eagling is ordained in 1999

In early 1989, the leadership of Franklin Christian Church wanted to dramatically increase the amount of money we were sending to missions. They were convinced that the church would give sacrificially to make it happen. Through Faith Promise, we ask the congregation to pledge an amount to give to missions. We explain the need, and the congregation prayerfully determines how much we will send.

From the amount of the pledged commitments, we set a mission budget.

We place the highest priority to missionaries actively engaged in foreign evangelism. Our goal is to grow towards being at least 50% of the support for 4 foreign missions.

Church Missions

- Brad & Tammy Harvey (PBT) are Bible translators in Tanzania. $2,625/mo (44%)
- Richard & Debbie Lee evangelize the people in Botswana & Zimbabwe with nearly 50 church plants. $1,300/mo (23%)
- Phil and Sharon Eagling are native Australians in Thornton, NSW, Near Newcastle, Australia. $1,300/mo (50%)
- Alberto Rivas minister among the people of the Monte Cristi, Dominican Republic. $1,000/mo (38%)

School Missions

- Julie Cochran teaching in SonLight's school in Port-de-Paix, Haiti. $900/mo (100%)
- Native Americans evangelism efforts by AI CM (American Indian Christian Mission) based in Show Low, AZ $110/mo

Medical Missions

- Dave and Suzie Snyder are medical missionaries in Kenya with the Maasai people. $1,300/mo (15.5%)

Evangelism Support Ministries

One of the best support organizations is the International Disaster Emergency Services (IDES). They provide food, medical, and construction assistance to areas hit by natural disasters.

All the funds are provided to Missionaries to dispense to those in need.

This subsequently, opens doors.

$450/mo

To support Faith Promise, make your check out to Franklin Christian church and write "Missions" in the memo area. Missions at FCC does not draw funding from FCC's general funds.

Franklin Christian Church Missions

The purpose of Franklin Christian Church is to REACH OUT to people so they may WORSHIP God, FELLOWSHIP with His people, GROW deeper in Christ and SERVE others.

In the words of one author, "We exist to introduce people to Jesus Christ and help them get better acquainted." Although it is not the only mission effort at Franklin Christian Church, Faith Promise is the principal vehicle for doing this work.
